

October 2015

Dear Parent/Carer

The English department have been fortunate in securing tickets for Year 10 to have the opportunity to see a performance of J.B. Priestley's An Inspector Calls at Bradford Alhambra Theatre on Wednesday 4th May 2016. This is a great opportunity to see a performance of a GCSE English Literature set text and will be of great benefit to be able to see a live production of the play in order to enrich their understanding in preparation for their upcoming GCSE English Literature exams. We have been unable to secure tickets for the entire year group to attend and therefore these tickets will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

The performance starts at 2:00 pm. We have made arrangements to travel by coach and will depart from school at 12:00 will return by 16:30. As we will be leaving before lunchtime, students will need a packed lunch in order to eat this on the coach. Additionally, due to the extended day a mobile phone may be useful to update parents with the anticipated arrival time on the journey home. Please note that the school is unable to accept any responsibility for those items which students bring.

The cost for this trip is £23.00. Please return the slip below to the office with payment by Friday 20th November 2015. Please make all cheques payable to Fulford School Fund.

If your child is eligible for Learner Support Fund, simply return the reply slip below indicating this is the case.

'All students have access to our extra-curricular activities and reasonable adjustments will be made to ensure each student's full inclusion in this trip. Please contact Mr Bodey, Deputy Headteacher, if you think that this may be needed for your child.'

Yours sincerely,

Miss N Pugh
Key Stage 4 Leader for English
