Dear Parent/Carer

Re: History Theatre Trip - Blood and Chocolate
York Theatre Royal – 7 pm Thursday 3 October 2013

The History Department have booked 30 tickets for the production of Blood and Chocolate at The Theatre Royal. The performance is about the impact of the First World War on the city of York. The performance takes place through the streets of York with a cast of 200.

The cost of the ticket is £11. We will meet at the Theatre Royal so you will need to arrange your own transport there and home.

If you would like your son/daughter to see this production please return the tear off slip below together with your payment of £11 (cheques made payable to Fulford School Fund) to the school office by Thursday 19 September.

Yours faithfully

Mrs K P Jenner
