

FULFORD SCHOOL

Code of Conduct for Residential Visits

The Students

It is important to appreciate and remember that when on residential visits, you are representing yourself, your school and if travelling abroad, your country also. The way you conduct yourself will have a lasting impression on those with whom you come into contact. It may also have implications for your personal health and safety as well as that of other staff and students on the visit. Given this it is vital that all students participating on residential visits agree to, and follow the code of conduct. This is especially important as there may be times when a teacher is not in your company and you are not under direct supervision.

What we expect of you:

- To listen carefully to instructions and to follow all instructions on behaviour, personal safety and the safety of others.
- To respect the environment wherever you go and not to drop any litter.
- If travelling abroad to remember that the culture of the country may be very different to that of your own and to respect that of the host country.
- To remember that you are a guest in your new environment and to be courteous at all times.
- To notify staff immediately, should any problems arise.

The Parent/Carer

The members of staff on this trip will be acting ‘in loco parentis’. They will exercise reasonable care to ensure the safety and well-being of the students. The rules on the trip are designed to protect and safeguard your child and ensure an enjoyable trip.

What we expect of you:

- To be responsible for your child’s actions and to emphasise the need to adhere to the terms of the code of conduct.
- To be prepared to pay for any damage caused by your child in not following the rules on the trip.
- To collect your child from the destination of the visit and to meet the cost of returning your child back home should staff feel that his/her behaviour merits this.
