How to Report Something in School

CLICK TO REACH OUT

You will need to log in using your school email and password. This means we'll know who to get in touch with to help.

REPORT

If a young person, you could contact the Children's Services through the Multi Agency Safeguarding Hub. Outside of normal office hours, you should

(including weekends and bank holidays): 01609 780780

If a young person is at immediate risk of harm, you should call 999. For other concerns that do not require an emergency

Working Together

- Engagement with Class Charts
- Two way communication
- Some organisational help (hopefully the first half-term only!)

Lessons & Report Cycle

- Currently taught in mixed ability groups for most lessons.
- Maths & Science are taught in sets.
- There will be 3 reports sent home throughout the year:
 - Friday 21st October
 - Friday 3rd February
 - Tuesday 12th July

Some practical bits...

- Mon & Wed canteen days at break time.
- Parent Pay
- PE kits & uniform
- Lockers
- Bus number
- The PSU
- Office 365 Access

OVERVIEW

WCSQM Assessment Framework

I consistently out-perform students from similar contexts, and I am committed to continually improving my performance because I ...

- inspire, encourage and recognise others
- know how to develop positive relationships with different groups of people

- achieve my potential and overcome obstacles

- have an area of expertise or specialism
- can demonstrate methods and tools of continual improvement
- am agile in response to changing needs and circumstances

- want to improve my learning continually
